The last twenty years of research on the brain and how we learn and form persistent memories will form the basis of this session in which students will learn how to optimize their study strategies to increase their confidence and fluency in a foreign language.

Work smarter, not harder!

Led by:
Lourdes Alvarez
Chair
Department of Modern Languages and Literatures

Wednesday, September 7th
at 7:30pm - Pryz 320A