H.E. Michael Collins

Ambassador of Ireland to the United States

Ireland and the E.U.: The Road to Recovery

Monday, April 15, 2013
7:00 p.m.
Pryzbyla Great Room

Prior to his appointment as Ambassador to the United States in 2007, Mr. Collins served in numerous political and diplomatic capacities in Ireland, the European Union, Eastern Europe, and the Middle East. He has also been an influential figure in the Northern Ireland peace process, addressing the British Parliament.

Co-sponsored by the Department of Modern Languages & Literatures

For more information or to request accommodations, please contact the department at 202-319-5240.