Taking a foreign language this semester? Come get some tips, tricks and insights to help you be a more successful language learner. Instructors and students will share their advice on how to optimize your study strategies and increase your confidence, fluency and grades. This session targets students at the introductory and intermediate levels, but is open to students at all levels.